Add another dimension to your design.

At amber-lite.com, we can now offer textured surfaces across our standard translucent panel range — introducing depth, detail and a completely new tactile quality.

Any colour. Any design. Your texture.

From subtle linear finishes to bold bespoke patterns, texture opens up even more possibilities for feature walls, illuminated panels, partitions and decorative surfaces.

Amberlite is not just a flat panel material it can be curved & shaped and can be textured too.

We can even custom produce subject to minimum order requirements.
